This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. You can search through the full text of this book on the web at `http://books.google.com/`

FROM THE

RULES AND REGULATIONS.

ARTICLE I.

The Library will be open for the delivery of books every day from two to five o'clock in the afternoon, and with the exception of Sundays, Legal Holidays and during the month of July, on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evenings from seven to nine o'clock.

ARTICLE II.

All persons hereinafter specified, who shall sign an obligation to observe all the existing Rules and Regulations of the Library, and all that may be subsequently prescribed by due authority, shall have free right to take books from the Library so long as they comply strictly with all its regulations, viz:—

First.—Any inhabitant of the town of the age of twenty-one years and upwards.

Second.—Any person not an inhabitant of the town who shall have been a benefactor to the Library to an amount of not less than twenty-five dollars.

Third.—Any inhabitant of the town between the ages of fourteen and twenty-one years, who shall present to the Librarian a certificate in the following form, signed by such minor's parent or guardian:

"The subscriber requests permission for —— ——, a minor, to be allowed to take out books from the Public Library, and will become responsible for said minor's observance of the rules of the Library, and for any damage or loss that may accrue to the Library in consequence of such permission.

Signed, —— ——, —— Street."

This voucher may be withdrawn at any time on application to the Librarian.

ARTICLE III.

Every person proposing to borrow books from the Library shall receive from the Librarian a printed card, on which the book asked for shall be designated by its catalogue number in a blank column left for that purpose, and this card is to be presented to the Librarian or his Assistant, as the only mode of obtaining any book that may be wanted. If the book called for is not to be found the card will be returned for the applicant to insert another number, and the Librarian shall not allow applicants to have access to the books excepting in this manner.

Article IV.

No person shall be allowed more than one volume at any one time, and no book shall be kept by the person borrowing it for a longer time than that prescribed by the Trustees, which time shall be plainly designated upon the volume. If, however, no written application shall have been made for the book during the interval by some other person, he may again take it out and retain it for a period of one week. The fine for the retention of any volume beyond the specified time shall be one cent for each and every day it is so retained.

Article VI.

Any book retained two weeks beyond the time prescribed by these regulations shall be sent for by the Librarian, and the expense incurred in thus obtaining it shall be paid by the person to whom it stands charged; and should the book not be returned to the Library within two days after demand thus made, it shall be regarded as lost.

Article VII.

All injuries to books beyond reasonable wear, and all losses, shall be made good to the satisfaction of the trustees, by the person chargeable therewith.

Article VIII.

All books are required to be returned to the Library on or before the thirtieth day of June, under penalty of a fine of fifty cents, but reasonable public notice shall be given by the Librarian.

Article IX.

No person receiving a book from the Library shall lend it to any person not a member of the same household.

Article X.

No person owing a fine or forfeiture shall receive books from the Library until the same is paid.

Article XI.

All persons visiting the Library Room will be expected to demean themselves quietly; and no loud conversation will be allowed in the room.

Any one abusing the privileges of the Library, by improper or offensive conduct, will be denied admission to the room.

Article XII.

Persons entitled to the privileges of the Library may receive books for consultation in the Library Room, during the times when it may be open; but such books shall be charged to them on delivery, and the entry erased when the same are returned, precisely as in the case of books withdrawn from the room.

ARTICLE XIII.

Books of Reference, and those deemed by the Trustees unsuited for general circulation, shall not be loaned except by permission of the Trustees.

ARTICLE XIV.

When any book that may be applied for is found not to belong to the Library, the applicant is particularly requested to furnish the Librarian with the title of such book, the name of the author and publisher, together with his own signature.

ARTICLE XV.

The Library shall be under the immediate superintendence of a Librarian, who shall observe such rules in its administration as the Trustees may from time to time prescribe, and who is especially charged to require an exact observance of the foregoing rules on the part of all.
